

יש להכין מונופול גדול שמתחלק ל: שאלה, משימה, אמת או שקר, תור נוסף, המתן תור.
בקובץ מצורפים המשפטים לפעולות של ז'-ח'.
ניתן להוריד מהאינטרנט תמונות של ט"ו בשבט בישראל. מצורפות דוגמאות.

מונופול - שאלות

1. Another name for tu bishvat? (HaBikurim, Ha'As if, Ha'Katchir, Ha'ilanot)
2. What do Passover and Tu Bishvat have in common: Seder
3. Traditionally, what are you supposed to read on tu b'shvat's seder? Tikon PRI etez hadar
5. Traditionally, what do you eat on Tu bishvat? Dry fruits
6. Why do you eat dry fruits on tu b'shvat? Because of the Jews around the world could just eat the Israeli's fruits like that, because they didn't have any way to keep the food cold or fresh
7. Mention two kinds of fruits that you eat dried on tu b'shvat? Date palm, apricot, grape
8. What tree symbolizing Tu B'shvat? Almond tree
9. Complete the sentence: טו בשבט הגיעה חג ל.....
10. Why is the holiday tu b'shvat called that instead of yud hei beshvat? You can't see yud hei because of god's name.
11. Traditionally what do you do (especially in Israel) for tu beshvat? Plant trees
13. What are the seven species
- wheat, seora (barley), gefen (vine), fig, pomegranate, olive, date
15. According to the story of creation – God made the plants on the _____ day – third day
16. According to the story of Adam and Eve, they were punished because they ate _____.
17. According to the bible, after the big flood the dove came with an _____ branch in her mouth
18. In Israel we celebrate tu b'shvat as _____ - תחייה של מדינת ישראל שתיהיה פורייה
19. Today people celebrate tu b'shvat all around the world as _____ - חוגגים כחג לאיכות - הסביבה

מונפול- משימה

plant trees -Nlap stetre

dry fruits - Ryd tifsur

holiday -Lydiaho

Nature – raentu

Traditions – onirtasdit

Seven Species– neevs epsics

Tikon PRI hadar – nikot pir rahad

Ilanot – tanilo

Date palm – tead malp

Dry apricot- dyr tapciro

Almond tree – dalomn teer

Green – nereg

Olives – visleo

Wheat – tewah

Fig – gfi

Vine – evni

Pomegranate- tanemoperag

Milk & Honey– yohen & limk

Recycling – glencircy

Environment- tenmonrivne

מונפול-אמת או שקר

1. According to Jewish tradition you can't eat fruits that are not dried – false
2. Because tu b'shvat support the environment, you can't drive cars on that day – false
3. According to the Jewish tradition people read tikon PRI hadar in the Seder – true
4. During tu b'shvat, people usually participate in an environmental activities like planting trees and recycling- true
5. Tu b'shvat doesn't mentioned in the bible – true
6. Only people in Israel can celebrate tu b'shvat because it talks about planting trees in Israel – false
7. In Israel you can't plant trees during the year and that's why tu b'shvat is very important holiday in Israel –false
8. We eat dry fruits to remind us that the Jewish people outside of Israel in the past couldn't eat fresh Israeli fruits –true
9. During tu b'shvat you have to sit in the sukkah for the same number as the species (7)- false
10. Another name for tu b'shvat is hag ha'ilanot – true
11. Planting trees on tu'bshvat started as a cultural thing, and later became a tradition- true

עזרים לז'ח': משפטים ל(לא) מסכים (לא) עושה

1. I care and protect the environment. How?
2. I care and protect the environment. How?
3. It's important to support hybrid\electric transportation even though it cost more money.
4. I think everyone should recycle.
5. It's important to save water.
6. I think reusing paper is important. Why?
7. I prefer riding bicycle than driving cars. Examples for why not or why is?
8. There is a lot more recycling activites/stuff that I can do
9. I prefer to use one-use dishes because it saves water (by not cleaning the dishes)
10. I think that the mail should be closed because we can use e-mail instead and save the trees.
11. The important to shut off all of the lights when you leave the house