

“Artist Zeev Engelmayer’s Daily Postcards bring solace with colorful realism”

The Times of Israel

The Daily Postcard by Shoshke

October 7 Catastrophe stories, delivered through colourful drawings, offering hope and resilience by artist Zeev Engelmayer (“Shoshke”)

In the wake of the tragic events of October 7th, Israeli illustrator and comic artist Zeev Engelmayer, known affectionately as Shoshke, embarked on a heartfelt journey of expression through art. Each day, he creates and shares poignant postcards that depict the hostages and their families, mourners, injured and fallen soldiers, and the eventual return of the hostages. Through these daily postcards, we are invited into the intimate world of those affected, allowing us to empathize with their experiences, share in their hopes and dreams, and even find solace amidst the vibrant colors and imaginative scenes.

This unique and vivid exhibition serves as a beacon of light and positivity during dark times, aiming to inspire hope and resilience in the face of adversity. By keeping the memory of the abducted individuals alive through his art, Shoshke's work serves as a powerful reminder of the human spirit's ability to endure and overcome even the most challenging circumstances.

Shoshke Daily Postcard Exhibition

In order to bring this unique October 7th context artwork experience to broader audiences, United With Israel, sister partner of Hope for Israel Alliance (HIA), initiated a collaboration with artist Zeev Engelmayer, which yielded the first Shoshke Daily Postcard exhibition in Melbourne (Australia).

Following, this colourful and inspiring artwork was presented worldwide in Philadelphia (USA), Romania, Italy, Hong Kong, Denmark, and other cities offering the visitors a powerful experience of resilience and hope.

Shoshke Art is used also for:

- “We Shall Dance Again” commemorative event, tribute to the NOVA Music Festival Victims.
- Art Workshop – transforming grief into artwork, inspired by Shoshke Art.
